

Senior Software Developer

ES-14208

As a Senior developer (Informatica) your primary responsibilities are:

- Outline the ETL process, setting the borders of data processing
- Understand the requirements clearly from the BAs/Business ensuring good communication and be critical wherever required
- Take active participation in the code review process and should be able to provide feedback to other developers
- Troubleshoot and debug ETL jobs and create unit tests for ETL jobs
- Assess query performance and actively contribute towards optimizing
- Evaluating changes and updates to source production systems
- Work with stakeholders including the Executive, Product, Data and Design teams
- Provide quality assurance of imported data, working with quality assurance analysts if necessary

The key requirements for the role are:

- 5 to 8 Years of experience in development
- Informatica Powercenter
- Database, SQL and performance tuning
- Data warehousing
- Stored procedures
- Basics of Linux/Unix scripting
- Agile way of working
- Scheduling concepts
- Basic knowledge of CICD and version management

Nice to Have skill set:

- Azure Cloud Platform and Azure ADF

At Our Partner You will discover:

- Continuous learning and development
- Professionally outstandingly strong client team
- Chance to improve professional communication, in handling multi-technology and multi-tasking environment
- A colorful and dynamic work environment with a great diversity of people, cultures and business areas
- An open culture that improves the quality of life
- Learning and sharing that helps you to progress both professionally and personally

Location: Budapest